Loyal oppositionist-at-large: The col'm had the skewp starring lke's Cabineteer (Humphrey) several months ago like so: "Two of lke's Cabineteer (Humphrey) several months ago like so: "Two of lke's Cabineteer (Humphrey) several months ago like so: "Two of lke's Cabinet members will be involved in the stockpile mess". .. The column also tipped the C.I.A. pilot Powers' abrogation (many Mondays ago: this way: "The unhappiness of Mrs. Powers, wife of the U-2 pilot. Has to do with more than his being in a (Soviet) jail" ... Other Hearst-firsts here were the resignations of U. S. Ambassadors Gavin (France) and Thompson (Russia) ... Stop bragging? Not bragging—just making N. Y. editor Jimmy Wechsler look ridie with the above reminders. It was J. W. (one-time official of the Young Communist League) who recently heckled: "Poor Walter, there is no tury like that of a columnist who has lost his Washington piper. Several journalistic jurgs echo'd him... (End of Bronx Jeer.)
